Saint Ignatius of Loyola

Keep this story for the next 3 weeks to complete the activities in this fun pack!

Saint Ignatius of Loyola was born at the castle of Loyola in Guipuzcoa, Spain in 1491. He had 12 older brothers and sisters, and was named Inigo at birth. He later changed his name to Ingatius, probably to fit in better with people in France and Italy where he lived for part of his adulthood.

We don’t know a lot about his childhood, but when he was old enough he joined the army in Spain to fight against the French. However his military career ended when he was hit by a cannonball and it broke his leg. He went back to his family’s castle, and while he was recovering he read about the lives of saints. He was so inspired by the life of Jesus, the Gospels and the lives of saints that he decided to dedicate his life to God. He wanted to be like Saint Francis of Assisi and other great saints.

He visited the Holy Land and studied at the University of Paris. In 1534, he took a vow of poverty and just a few years later in 1539 he and several others formed the Society of Jesus, also known as Jesuits. They were a group whose members served the Pope as missionaries. The Society of Jesus is also known for having produced many saints in the years following. Saint Ignatius of Loyola was a great leader of the Jesuits and was zealous in opposing the division of Christians during the Protestant Reformation.

Saint Ignatius of Loyola was also known for writing Spiritual Exercises, a 200 page set of meditations, prayers and other exercises for growing closer to God.

He died when he was 65 years old, and his feast day is July 31. He was beatified and then canonized in 1622. He is the patron saint of spiritual retreats.
